Synopsis:

As a professional fundraiser for charitable organizations, Lillian Maloney, is used to sweet talking people into seeing things her way. But when she sees her father's campaign manager murder a woman in the parking garage of his office building, no amount of sweet talking can save her. Now, she's Lilly Peterson, and on the run from the men he's hired to kill her. A close call brings Firefighter Jason Tanner into her life. He believes her when she tells her story and after another attempt on her life in the hospital, helps her escape. While on the run with this fascinating woman, Jason finds himself falling in love—and she seems to return the sentiment. Unfortunately, neither one of them may live to do anything about it as the killer closes in. With only a handful of people they can trust, they come up with a plan to turn the tables on the killer—and can only pray it doesn't backfire.

Praise for Lethal Homecoming - Book 1 in the Tanner Hollow series: "Edge of your seat, page-turner, must read. I'm just never disappointed when I pick up a Lynette Eason book. Even in a novella, you'll find yourself wrapped up in her characters. Simply can't wait for the next in series!" – T. Shoemaker – verified purchase Amazon reviewer
